

Liability Release and Cancellation Policy

I, the undersigned, hereby agree that DOTC, Inc. shall not be held responsible for any injury, damage or loss that my dog or I might receive while attending training classes or while on club property. I further agree to pay for any injury or damage that my dog may cause to any other animals, people or property while on DOTC property.

Dog and handler may be dropped from the class with no notice at the discretion of the class instructor, the Director of Training and/or the Board of Directors. Violation of club rules may result in your being asked to leave DOTC. Examples of behavior that may necessitate expulsion include, but are not limited to, aggression, abusive training, lack of cooperation, and intoxication. Decatur Obedience Training club has the right to deny training/class privileges and/or membership for any reason, provided the reason does not violate any state or federal law.

Payment options include paying online, cash or check. If paying by cash or check it must be received ONE week prior to the start date of the class. Checks should be made out to DOTC. Cash or check payments should be mailed to

Decatur Obedience Training Club
